

Week 28: Summer Storm

- Capital Letter for the First Word in a Sentence, Using the Right Word

I see big, black clouds. _____ comes (Hear, Here)

the rain. it is raining _____ hard. run (to, two, too)

_____ cover! look at the lightning. can you (for, four)

_____ thunder? This is a big storm.
(hear, here)

Week 28: Corrected Paragraph

I see big, black clouds. Here comes (Hear, Here) R
the rain. it is raining too hard. run ≡ (to, two, too) L C
for cover! look at the lightning. can you (for, four) ≡
hear thunder? This is a big storm.
(hear, here)

Week 29: Show-and-Tell

- Period, Question Mark, or Exclamation Point; Capital Letters for Special Names

Today is show-and-tell day Do you want to see my special rock My friend maria has a new book
What does carlos have in his brown bag Wow, it is space food We like to share our special things

Week 29: Corrected Paragraph

Today is show-and-tell day. Do you want to see my special rock? My friend Maria has a new book.
What does Carlos have in his brown bag? Wow, it is space food! We like to share our special things.