

Week 31: Mixed-Review Sentences

Science and Inventions 1

* Colon, Comma in Compound Sentences, Capitalization

Our assembly will begin at 130 and the speaker will tell us about some of Benjamin franklin's inventions.

* Capitalization, Subject-Verb Agreement

In 1931, the empire state building were the tallest building in the world.

* Apostrophe in Contractions, Comma to Keep Numbers Clear

I wouldnt want to wash the windows of the Empire State Building because its 1250 feet tall!

* Apostrophe in Contractions, Run-On Sentence

Were lucky that vaccines have been developed many people would have died without them.

* Hyphen, Capitalization

Mars is about one half the size of earth.

Week 31: Corrected Sentences

* Colon, Comma in Compound Sentences, Capitalization

Our assembly will begin at 1:30[^] and the speaker will tell us about some of Benjamin^F franklin's inventions.

* Capitalization, Subject-Verb Agreement

In 1931, the^E ~~e~~mpire^S ~~s~~tate^B ~~b~~uilding^{was} ~~were~~ the tallest building in the world.

* Apostrophe in Contractions, Comma to Keep Numbers Clear

I wouldn't[^] want to wash the windows of the Empire State Building because its[^] 1,250[^] feet tall!

* Apostrophe in Contractions, Run-On Sentence

Were[^] lucky that vaccines have been developed. ^Mmany people would have died without them.

* Hyphen, Capitalization

Mars is about one[^] half the size of ^Ee~~e~~arth.